

COREY DANIELS GALLERY

I consider Corey to be a national treasure in the world of design. He brilliantly creates vignettes that showcase art against the architectural backdrop of his gallery.

BEST FOOT FORWARD

Happy, stylish feet are a must for busy days at the design studio, store, and site visits. I'm lucky that my husband runs the best spot for chic and comfy shoes in Kennebunkport!

THE MISSING PIECE

The craggy coast of Maine inspired this jigsaw cocktail table. Crafted by a local woodworker, it's one of my favorite custom pieces.

PAULA DAHER

THE INTERIOR DESIGNER AND OWNER OF MÉLANGE IN KENNEBUNK SHARES HER FAVORITE FINDS FROM AROUND THE WORLD

As an interior designer, Paula Daher knows that no project is complete without art and accessories. Her new store, MÉLANGE, brings together finds from shopping trips to Morocco and France with local artisanal crafts made right here in Maine. Through her new store, she is excited to share the artistic work of the many talented craftspeople and artists that spark joy in her creative soul.

Good news: Four of her seven picks will be available soon at her store.

NICOLETTE MAYER

This artful acrylic accessory collection is my go-to for pops of color. Nicolette's chic pieces offer a daily dose of fun and make great gifts.

MOROCCAN BLANKETS

I watched the women in villages in Morocco as they weaved these blankets—their textiles are true works of art. I love to use them on beds and sofas.

ARTISANAL BOWLS

As a longtime frequent visitor to Marrakech, I find the artisanal craft culture extraordinary! These ceramic bowls with a woven raffia rim detail are perfect in any setting.

TEA FIRST

Tea is my morning ritual and a daytime indulgence when I need a moment to re-center. Tea Forte elevates my tea ritual with its artful sachets.
